I would have thought time could erase
I'll never get over you
The feeling's lost in your embrace
I'll never get over you

But still, I try
And still, I cry
I'll never get over you
Never get over you

I tell myself, my heart will find
A way to get over you
When I've already lost my mind
Tryin' to get over you

The voice goes on
The feeling's strong
I'll never get over you
Never get over you

I'll never get over you
Never get over you

I recognize
Those crazy eyes
And still, they're telling me lies

I'll never get over you
I'll never get over you
I'll never get over you

I'll never get over you
I'll never get over you
I'll never get over you
