"Happy Meal"

arrange the books clean up the small table by the sofa arrange my clothes shape up the place eager for the meeting
the dinner we'll be eating, wine that we'll be drinking and kinky thoughts I'm thinking, all because of you
and now I've found a partner, no one can be, happier than I am and now I've found a new friend, no one can be, happier than me prepare a meal I can make sing funny songs while it's in the oven then take a bath with bubbles shape up my face just before our meeting
the dinner we'll be eating,
and kinky thoughts I'm thinking,
