It's hard to sleep with skeletons under your bed.
This was by my hands, the dagger in your back.
This feeling of regret.
These words so hard to speak,
These words I should have said a long time ago.

Every day I wish I had done this differently,
(I'd take it back given the chance)
Given the chance I'd take it back.
You were loyalty, I was a fucking snake.
A callow minded fool, this is my only regret.

Looking back my only regret is the mistake I made with you,
Losing the chance to make amends,
Looking back, this is my only regret.
I'd take it back, given the chance.
