I recall when they would say
No one lives for just one day Don't keep hopes that can't be sold Don't chase rainbows just their gold

Tried it their way, tried it mine
I won my race before my time
But golden trophies, fancy toys Don't compare to childhood joys

Walk beside me darlin', come listen to the rain
And watch the rollin' water to ease your pain again
When night comes down to free us and sorrow's finally gone
I long to hear your secret dreams and rock you in my arms

There lived a nation proud and free
It tried to show us harmony
But we stood much too close to see
To read the hand of destiny

I know a child who's only seen A sunrise on the silver screen
She never watched the birds in flight Or saw the dew by mornin' light

Walk beside me darlin', come hear the howlin' wind
He'll be a true companion, he'll listen like a friend When night comes down to free us, your sorrow finally
gone
I long to hear your secret dreams and rock you in my
arms

Walk beside me darlin', come listen to the rain
And watch the rollin' water to ease your pain again
gone
I long to hear your secret dreams and rock you in my
arms

Walk beside me darlin', come hear the howlin' wind

He'll be a true companion, he'll listen like a friend
When night comes down to free us and your sorrow's finally gone
I long to hear your secret dreams and rock you in my
arms
