Goin back home
Get my old gal soon
Goin back home
Get my old gal soon
You a high priced chick
And I got to let you go

I love you baby,
Just ain't got the price
Yeah baby, I got to let you go
That's why I am goin' back home
Get my old gal soon

My mama told me
Leave that chick alone
Mama didn't know what that gal was puttin' down

I said Mama,
I just can't let her go
She's a high priced baby,
But I love her just the same
Yes I love her

I got a map to the highway baby
Movin' on down the line
I got a map to the highway
Movin' on down the line
Just a high priced baby, got to let you go
