It takes no match to give me a spark
Now Iâ€™m trying out another heart
Iâ€™ve been winding â€™bout a fresh start
Iâ€™ve found myself a good horse

Eyes burning on the quicksand
And I run it through the hollow land
Iâ€™ve fed it with a shaky hand
I found myself a strong horse

These are the promises I can keep
These are the promises I can keep
To live like I must
And ride with the dust in my face
In grace
Iâ€™ve found myself a good horse
Yes Iâ€™ve found myself a strong horse
But things remain not different then before

These are the promises I can keep
Yes these are the promises I can keep
To live like I must
And ride with the dust in my face

These are the promises I can keep
These are the promises I can keep
To live like I must
And ride with the dust in my face
In grace
