How I always memorize
Every single misery
And I seem to glorify
Everything inside of me

And the hero never dies
If the lover hides between the sheets
There's no escape 'cause you can't sleep
And then you'll see you're just like me

That's what you called waste of time
I'll be waiting down the line
That's what you called waste of time
Waiting for your Valentine

That's what you called waste of time
I know where your hero hides
That's why you don't sleep tonight
That's what I call
That's what you call
That's what I call life

With a hero in the past
You hang on to history
Such a loss will always last
And there's no recovery

And the hero never dies
If the lover hides between the sheets
There's no escape 'cause you can't sleep
And then you'll see you're just like me

That's what you called waste of time
I'll be waiting down the line
That's what you called waste of time
Waiting for your Valentine

That's what you called waste of time
I know where your hero hides
That's why you don't sleep tonight
That's what I call
That's what you call

That's what I call
That's what you call
That's what I call
That's what you call
That's what I
(That's what I call life)

That's what you called waste of time
That's what you called waste of time
That's what you called waste of time
That's why you don't sleep tonight
You're waiting for your Valentine
