Turn away an' the collar
'Cause the blowing is dry
Walk away to the harbor
Before your ships will fly

Slip away an' the pillow
'Cause it's falling all down
Trot away and around
Because your ships are found

Somewhere over the water
Next to a harbor
Someone's eager to listen

Somewhere over the water
Next to a harbor
Someone, someone to be in

Turn away an' the collar
'Cause the blowing is dry
Walk away to the harbor
Before your ships will fly

Somewhere over the water
Next to a harbor
Someone's eager to listen

Somewhere over the water
Next to a harbor
Someone, someone to be
Someone, someone to be
Someone, someone to be in
