This is a start that I know I'll believe in so I'm leavin' everything behind Keeping the parts that I know I'll be needing and I breed to be a better kind And I'm leavin' everyone behind

This is the age
when my past should be gone but it's just stronger than the aims I have Turning the pages
I used to hang on to
I was young and I have changed my mind

And I'm leaving everything behind

New beginning again
a bit closer
new beginning again
a little bit closer
New beginning again
a bit closer to the end

This is the time
it's a delicate line
to the beginning of what's yet to come Lifetimes of changes a strange generation explanations never come in time
So I'm leavin' everything behind
