"Three Long Years Today"

It's been rainin' this time, baby
About a three long years, today
It was rainin' this time
About a three long years, today
My baby went and left me
And she left me by myself

Well, I said farewell, baby
No, you won't be back no more
Lord, I said fare you well, baby
No, you won't be back no more
Leave me worried and bothered
And troubled all the time
Yes, yes, yes, man

You know I won the will
My baby takin' me back again
You know I won the will
My baby takin' me back again
Lord, I ain't did nothin', did nothin'
God know tried to treat my baby right
