I looked everywhere
Thought that I would find you
Thro' the night
Shadows dancing in the moonlight
Broken dreams
Hard road

Wish I could write of the love
I have known
In my lifetime
Wish I could find just one word
One small line
When I'm down
The world has gone and changed
Its face
The world has gone and changed
Its place
While we were dreaming
For the human race
I know i've
Been down this road many times
Many ways
In my lifetime
And
Somehow the path that you've Walked
In your life
Has led to me

Your love has gone and changed
My world
Your love has changed the world i
See
While I was waiting
You came to me

I looked everywhere
Knew that I would find you
Thro' the night
Shadows dancing in the moonlight
Broken dreams
Hard road

Hard, hard road
Hard road
Hard, hard road
(repeat and fade)
