birthing a nation we just can't fail out of the entrance so lost and so frail if i wasn't with you we'd all fall down, a capital horror estrogen oxygen aches in the teeth again(4) this is your instrument, this is attack this is the spine that was laid in your back if i wasn't with you I'd just fall down, a capital horror estrogen oxygen aches in the teeth again (4)

falling for your love was not the biggest mistake that i made it was all just an introduction to the violent mess that we'd lay

we'd lay

oh so young and precious devoured lost be the lost and the angels retired all the damage that's in me now we'll watch it burn
