Great Granddaddy left five million dollars to Sally Twelve twenty story office buildings in New York to Sally

Sixty thousand acres of a prime beef cattle in Utah A thirty room mansion with the servants and a chauffeur with a new car.

Chorus

All of this for Sally, all of this for Sally

All of this for Sally, (gasp) who loves only me.

Now, when the lawyers read the will and gave everything to Sally

All the great-grandkids looked disgustedly at Sally It was quite a shock when he left his blue chip stock just to Sally

And it was terrible when he left his Riviera home to Sally

Chorus

I take Sally for a walk each evening in the city park She looks up at me with those big brown eyes and breaks my silly heart

Sally's not too good at arithmetic, so all her money, I kinda handle

'Cause after all, Sally's just four year old, Brown eyed...Cocker spaniel.

Chorus
