

John Loudermilk

"Callin' Dr. Casey"

Visit "Callin' Dr. Casey" on MotoLyrics.com

Callin' Doctor Casey, callin' Doctor Casey, yes...
Oh, Ben Casey, can you mend a broken heart?
Oh, Doctor Casey, can you mend a broken heart?
Well, now my sweet little baby's gone and drove me
crazy
And broke my heart in two.
Oh, Doctor Casey, ain't there something you can do?
Well, I watch you on television every week.
There ain't nothing you can't do
A post nasal drip to a dislocated hip
From lock jaw to the flu.
Callin' Doctor Casey, callin' Ben Casey
Callin' Doctor Casey, callin' Ben Casey
Yes, hey, doctor Casey, can you mend a broken heart?
Oh, Doctor Casey, can you mend a broken heart?
Well, now my sweet little baby's gone and drove me
crazy
And broken my heart in two.
Hey, Ben Casey, ain't there something you can do?
If you can mend broken bones and take out kidney stones
And do a little psychiatry,
Then you ought to be able to put me on the table
And take good care of me.
Oh, Ben Casey, can you mend a broken heart?
Hey, Ben Casey, can you mend a broken heart?
Well, now my sweet little baby's gone and drove me
crazy
And broke my heart in two
Hey, Doctor Casey, ain't there something you can do?
Callin' Doctor Casey, callin' Ben Casey
Callin' Doctor Casey, callin' Ben Casey
Yes, Oh, Doctor Casey, ain't there something you can do?

Visit John Loudermilk page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.