Looking at me, never find out what a working man's about Raving all night, sleeping away the day Something to ask, something to say, something to keep the pain away
Something I'd like to see if it's alright

Life, go easy on me Love, don't pass me by Spending my time, making ?a chime? and I'll throw away the rest

Looking for ways to ?...? and ease my mind Something I need, something I plea for, something I have to say Something to keep me safe when I'm away

One way for me, one way for you, one way for all of us
To get back home, do whatever we want to do Nothing to tell you, nothing to show, nothing that you don't know
Something to play, something to say for now
