Have you ever loved a woman
So much it really hurts to be alone?
Have you ever loved a woman
So much it really hurts to be alone?
When all the time you know
That little girl you love will do you wrong
When you just love that woman
So much it really makes you tremble in pain
When you love a woman
So much it really makes you tremble in pain
And the part that hurts so bad
When you know that you will never gonna see her again, yeah
Have you ever loved a woman
So much that it really hurts to be alone?
Have you ever loved a woman
So much that it really hurts to be alone?
While all the time you know
You know she wanna break up your happy home
