Think I'm gonna stay home Have myself a homelife Sittin' in the slow-mo And listenin' to the daylight I am not a nomad I am not a rocket man I was born a house cat By the SLIGHT of my mother's hand Think I'm gonna stay home I want to live in the center of a circle I want to live on the side of a square I used to be in my ?? SCENE You'll never find me 'cause my name isn't there Homelife I'm holding out for the homelife My homelife I wanna see the ending I wanna learn a last name Finish on a Friday And sit in traffic on the highway See I refuse to believe That my life's gonna be Just some string of incompletes Never to lead me to anything remotely close to a homelife I'm holding out for A homelife My homelife I can tell you this MUCH, I will marry just once And if it doesn't work out, I'll give her half of my stuff It's fine with me We said eternity I will go to my grave, with the LOVE that I gave Not just a melody line on a radio wave It dissipates And soon evaporates Homelife doesn't change I want to live in the center of a circle I want to live on the side of a square I'd love to WALK TO WHERE we both can talk But I've got to leave it 'cause my ride is here And my homelife You take a homelife You keep a homelife Come back for the homelife I promise Homelife I promise Life Homelife Homelife
