Violent skies, 10 a.m.
Falling on my knees again

Outside in the underground
Proud in the rain

I'm walking a straight line
Stepped on all of the cracks this time
I don't care, I'm not moving aside for anyone

Outside in the underground
Proud in the rain
Outside in the underground
There's no way out of here today

I raise my head up to the sky again
And make my way alone
I'm never home but I've stopped searching
'Cause the city told me so
It all comes down, down to me

Oh, I've got a hundred lives
Oh, I've got to get it right
Oh, who knows someday I might
Outside in the underground

Underground, proud in the rain
Outside in the underground
There's no way out of here today

I raise my head up to the sky again
And make my way alone
I'm never home but I stopped searching
'Cause the city told me so
It all comes down down to me

Oh, I've got a hundred lives
Oh, I got to get it right
Oh, who knows someday I might
Oh, I've got to get it right
