I want to want you tonight because i need to Everything that I had I'm waiting on Gived and I gave all I could Kept a little Finding it hard to believe everything's gone gone gone

How m I gonna run back home
With a heart so heavy
How m I gonna make my way
When I can't find the road
How m I gonna beat this pain
When I can't see how deep it goes
Heaven knows .. but I don't

Faith is a bankless desire
But i still choose it
I follow it all the time
And carry on
I used to live by the line
What good is a circle
What does it do for me now

Everything's gone gone gone

o0o o0o o0o.....

So How m i gonna run back home
With a heart so heavy
How m i gonna make my way
When i can't find the road
How m i gonna beat this pain
If i can't see how deep it goes
Heaven knows but i dont

I still believe in love
I still believe in love
I do I do
I still believe in love
I still believe in love
