Now that we have come this far
Don't be frightened by the night
Just let me be your guardian angel
You will be my guiding light

We've been on this road so long
And sometimes not know where we are
That's when I'd be your lost horizon
You would be my shangri la

Praise slips out so easily
It may not sound sincere
But it only seems to come to me
Whenever you are near

So thank you for the joy ou bring
Thank you for your love each night
I'll always be your guardian angel

Always be my guiding light

When the sun is far too strong
When the wind is cold as ice
That's when I'll be your life's oasis
You will be my paradise

So thank you for the joy you bring
Thank you for your love each night
I'll always be your guardian angel
Always be my guiding light

Yes I'll always be your guardian angel
As long as you'll be my guiding light
