Candles in the window
Lights are on the tree
Presents wrapped in ribbons
But something is missing here for me

I'm sentimental and it's regrettable
When I look outside
'Cause I get the blues
When it's not white

Oh, we need some snow
Southern nights are too warm
Give me a storm where the cold wind blows

Get stuck for awhile in front of a fire
Where we warm our toes
Heaven knows, this holiday doesn't feel right
A blanket of white is my Christmas wish tonight

Oh, we need some snow
'Cause it would be nice to skate on the ice
Snowflakes on our nose

What could be better than spinning together
And falling making angel wings under the moonlight
A blanket of white is my Christmas wish tonight

Nothing like bad weather
Old man winter plays his part
To bring us close together
And warm each other's heart

Falling, snowflakes falling, make this holiday sure feel right
A blanket of white is my Christmas wish tonight
A blanket of white is my Christmas wish tonight
