I get up and battle the day things dont always go my way it might rain but thats ok I get to come home to you sometimes life may get me down I get tired of getting kicked around I feel lost in this maddening crowd but

(chorus)
cause you are my best friend and you are where my heart is and I know at the days end I get to come to home to you hanging out in our old sweat shirts you let me complain about a hard days work I dont know what I did to deserve to get to come home tou

(chorus)
and you are my heart is
and I know at the days end

yes I get to come home to you oh I love coming hooooome to you
