New sounds pumping
My heart was jumping
When the walls came falling down
Conversation like a live wire
You got me crawling on the ground
Hard to think that you meant something
You played me like a fool
Stranger Danger
Neon signs
Flashing lights tell the truth

New day dawning
My mind reborning
When the walls came falling down
Conversation like a live wire
You've got me crawling on the ground
Hard to think that you meant something
You played me like a fool
Stranger Danger
Neon signs
Flashing lights tell the truth

Cause I don't wanna feel like I'm going down
Wasting my life in this two bit town
Dragging my feet along the ground
Watching my life fall all around
And do you know what it's like to
To be down, alone and out of sight
Waiting for the change that never comes
Heart feels like it's fading away

I'm the one left picking up the pieces
While you just bleed me dry
I'm the one left picking up the pieces
I'm the one left picking up the pieces
While you just bleed me dry
I'm the one left picking up the pieces
