I think I knew right away
I watched the night turn to day

And you can stay as long as you like
It's like I've known you my whole life
Don't change a thing
Not anything

It's like you know just how I feel
When you're gone I need to hear you calling out to me

Save this moment
I don't wanna stop it now
I don't want for this to end

Save this moment
I wanna find out how
The story starts and where it ends

We're floating in this
We're still floating in this
We're floating in this
We're still floating in this

If I could have one more day
I'd take these steps and retrace

And you can stay as long as you like
It's like I've known you my whole life
Don't change a thing
Not anything

It's like you know just how I feel
When you're gone I need to hear you calling out to me

Save this moment
I don't wanna stop it now
I don't want for this to end

Save this moment
I wanna find out how

The story starts and where it ends

Save this moment

Can you save this moment?

Save this moment

I wanna find out how

The story starts and where it ends
