You'll soon get over it, you'll find somebody new You're better off out of it, that girl's no good for you Cry if you wanna cry, shout if you wanna shout
Why don't you let it out, but they don't realise I heard it all a million times, tried to explain, but here it comes again

Chorus:

Everytime I hear those sad songs, makes me wanna try again

All this time and I'm still hurtin', love will get you everytime

You'll find somebody new, she's not the only one She left you black 'n' blue, you should be glad she's gone

Cry if you wanna cry, shout if you wanna shout
Come on and let it out, but they don't realise It's getting harder every day, I feel the same, and here it comes again

(chorus)

(Solo)

I stare at your photograph, times we laughed, oh the memory of you

Was it all so bad, all we had left with you

You were the one, you gave me life

Why did you change, when I still feel the same

(chorus) - everytime, everytime, it's gonna get you everytime...
