Destiny, I can hear freedom call
With these hands, we can tear down these walls Ya gotta sing out loud, ya gotta sing out strong He's gonna soon be here, and it won't be long You wanna change the world, you need a man with a vision, whoah
Got it all figured out, you need a man with a vision, whoah
And through his eyes, we'll see a better place tonight
The world will know his name, he's a man with a vision Sixty four, fighting on distant shores
One man alone can stop this senseless war
He said, you gotta sing out loud, gotta sing out strong (sing out strong) He's gonna soon be here and it won't be long (it won't be long), yeah
You wanna change the world, you need a man with a
vision, whoah
You got it all figured out, you need a man with a vision,
whoah
And through his eyes, we'll see a better place tonight
What the hell are we fighting for - I saw the future in the eyes of a man
No-one ever gonna win this war - he said I have a dream Come the day we'll live as one - it don't matter 'bout the colour of his skin When everyman will be free - when every man can be free
You wanna change the world, you need a man with a
vision, whoah
You got it all figured out, you need a man with a vision,
whoah
Across the land, we'll see the fires burning bright
The world will know his name
You wanna change the world, you need a man with a
vision, whoah
You got it all figured out, you're a man with a vision, whoah...
