(#89 in 1985.)

You wanna shake my hand, say there's no hard feelings

But there's another lie between the lines I'm reading

If you want him, then take him, just push me away, baby I just got to know

If you want him, then have him, there's no other way, yeah

I tear your letters up, and flush away the pieces

How does that saying go, you'd love me till hell freezes

You're lyin', I'm dyin' a little each day, girl you know it hurts me so

Stop duckin' and diving, come right out and say

Chorus:

'Cause I can't take no more of this

Love grammar, takin' me and breakin' me up, love

grammar, the grammar of love

I before he except after she - knows I'll always be there

Ready or not, she took what I got - to give and she don't care - I before he

Don't wanna lose control, and maybe rock proceedings

Don't fear a new attack, the fact is I'm conceding

If you want him, then take him, don't treat me this way

Cause I just feel like letting go

You want him, you got him, I'm leavin' today

(chorus)

Love grammar, takin' me and breakin' me up, love

grammar, the grammar of love

Love grammar, takin' me and breakin' me up, love

grammar, the grammar of love

I before he except after she - knows I'll always be there

Ready or not, she took what I got - to give and she don't care

I before he except after she

Love grammar (I before he, except after she)...(repeats out)
