If I could make my silence understood
We could be on the brink of something good
So I'll pretend to question what I already know
Try and believe you'll miss me if I go

And I feel like I should
Sometimes I think I could

I wanna close the window, I can scream out loud
And say all the wrong things that I'm saying now

'Cause I feel like I should
Because you wish I would

But if I say I love you and if I lay it out
What if you say you love me to see how it sounds?
But if you still can't hear me, what would it prove?
Just break the silence, I'm holding on to

'Cause I feel like I should
Because you wish I would

But if I say I love you and if I lay it out
What if you say you love me
Just 'cause you like the sound?

But if you still can't hear me, what would it prove?
Just break the silence I'm holding on to
If I could make my silence understood
We could be on the brink of something good
