Never is a word you've spoken that I long to hear
Never gonna leave my side
In my mind, rings so clear

I could love you till the end of tomorrow
And never, ever set you free
Think about it now - do you wanna love a man like me?

Better is a word I whisper softly in your ear
Much better than the times before
In my mind, rings so clear

I could love you till the end of tomorrow
And never, ever set you free
Think about it now - do you wanna love a man like me?

Time is a word I've spoken - I give to you
Anytime you need me, you know I'll be true

So you ask me if I'll stay for tomorrow
I'll show you, then you will agree
Think about it now - do you wanna love a man like me?

Do you wanna love a man like...

So you ask me if I'll stay for tomorrow
I'll show you, then you will agree
Think about it now - do you wanna love a man like me?

Think about it now - do you wanna love a man like me
