I make black holes in a building in my backyard
I mix it up in these little paper cups 'til I get it right
When I pour 'em out they float like tiny little clouds
The absence of light

See I thought life would be so limitless and free, but now I don't know me
Black on black on black on black on black on black night

Distractions rain 'til I can't feel the pain that keeps me alive
I'm gettin' numb darlin', feel dull and dumb
I'm sorry I, I lost my tongue and my sense of balance
(?)
Free-fallin' flight

See I thought life would be so limitless and free, but
now I don't know me
Black on black on black on black on black on black night

Little black clouds I climb in Elevator down to a future life
It always lasts longer
Lasts longer, lasts longer than I'd like I booked a room in a black-walled cocoon I put me on ice
I make black holes in a building in my backyard
I follow them
I follow limb after limb until I'm tired
I sleep in there
Pipe in the air
Run new wires
Nobody knows me
I'm invisible

Black on black night
Black on black night
Black on black night
Black on black night
Black on black night
Black on black night

Black on black night
Black on black night
Black on black night
Black on black night
Black on black night
Black on black night
