I don't want to ever wake up
I never, ever want to wake up
Want to close my eyes and hide from my life
You said that it wasn't that sharp
And your accidental remarks cut ribbons of me to fly on parade
I want you to know that it's not your fault
It's not your fault
It's not your

You said that it didn't look rough
Man thrown over. Bored by bad luck
And it's sleep or swim. Chance is slim, Julia
You said that the rope wouldn't break
Now it looks like a pretty mistake; crumpled on the floor
You said you were sure.
I want you to know that it's not your fault
It's not your fault
It's not your

Dear whoever finds this note first
It's not like it's a blessing or curse
It's just life and it's spinning round
It's just life and it spins you round
But it's not your fault
