

John Ralston

"This Summer"

Visit "This Summer" on MotoLyrics.com

This summer I took some time away
This summer I knew I couldn't stay
This summer I took some time away
I was livin' with the living but I couldn't shake that zombie sway

So where'd you go?
I've been right here waiting for the bells to call
I've been right here waiting for the cards to fall
We belong to no one now

But you don't know what you got
And then it's gone away
Yeah you don't know what you got
And then it's gone

This summer I took a coupla days
I stepped out of the sun and I found myself a shady lane
This summer I was glad you came
Just a good old friend to help me find my way

So where'd you go?
I've been right here waiting for the bells to call
I've been right here waiting for the cards to fall
We belong to no one now

But you don't know what you got
And then it's gone
Yeah you don't know what you got
And then it's gone

Visit John Ralston page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.