Wake up, get dressed, work, repeat
Mix in what might pass for sleep
I'm wide awake
Oh, I'm wide awake

I end up staring at the walls
Off with my head, stuff it, hang me in the halls
I'm aware
I just don't care
Oh, I'm wide awake
Wide awake
Time: It moves so slow since you've been gone

Too soon you're numb from the pain
You'll wanna hurt, but you can't feel the blade
Go away
Go away

The endless procession of days
Time unrelenting like hurricane waves
They break
Oh, they break
Me? I'll be ok
I will, just not today

Time - it moves so slow since you've been gone
This must get easier, right?
Yeah
Yeah, right

Oh boys, now don't be afraid
Who can be who cannot be replaced?
Who cannot be replaced
