Are you disappointed?
Is this world a let down
With your head in the clouds it's time to get down Head on collision crushed by dreams
So we leave our hearts at the accident scene shattered pieces scattered Who told us it was okay to allow our thoughts to be flattered
And entertained with ideas that can't sustain
And our future once so confidently proclaimed
So where do you go from here when it all disappears Apathy dries your tears until you don't care or you live and die
Occupied with disclaimers and reasons as to why realize life isn't lived in fantasies
No matter how much planning or strategy Joy comes along with tragedy I own them all gladly

(chorus)
I'm alright I'm okay
I kind of like doing things this way
All I have is what God gives
And that's all the life that I was meant to live
I'm alright I'm okay
I kind of like doing things this way

All I have it what God gives
And that's all the life that I was meant to live

We're not taught trial and error
We're not taught nor are we prepared
So we fail against everyday opponents
All the while we're still living for glorious moments
And the media feeds the youth a false reality of what it takes to make yourself happy And since they've got about a one in a billion shot Why try and make them think it's something that it's not No this ain't a movie this is real life
The spot light don't shine quite as bright as some might like But that's alright cuz the starlight at night is more of a highlight than the highlife

The air I consume from the breath of creation renews my soul everyday I awake Ah man tell me who knew that simply being content was the dream come true

(chorus)
