hello there ego why it's a displeasure to meet ya to be honest bro I really don't know how to treat ya greet ya with a pound but you want more than dat and to be honest I really don't know how to act i hear the blah blah blahblah blah blah blah blah blah blah blah blah man I watch your ego spoil for thinkin you're fresher than all else face full of perspiration from sweatin yourself lettin yourself act like a fool man look i don't care about your personalized hip-hop rule book took another man's thoughts on rules for the microphone how can I respect your opinion when it's not your own known fact you have an ego you need to lose it cuz if you're so real why you tryin so hard to prove it it should just be and if it is then we don't need a constant reminder that you're the dopest mc chorus

so you're the illest - so you're the dopest so you're the slickest man why you tellin me this in one ear and out the next all i keep on hearing is blah blah blah .....

hello there ego can I call you out for what you are john doe status but you're fronting superstar more like super far from reality but I guess it's trendy to make it look like actuality now let me see too many claim where they want to be and not where they're at i'll call your front and all those who got your back let it be known clone mimicks nah you won't last you don't have a future cuz you didn't have a past so in the present please don't get perturbed if I pay no attention to you and your pointless idle words cuz time is precious and I have better things to do than waste my energy on hearing you brag about you recyclin hip-hop the same old same old how you're so fresh and all else is stale n' old it's getting old plus man I've heard it all before pointless verses covered up in metaphors now catchin rec is one thing that's cool to express but there's only so many ways that you can tell me you're the best
