Trained to fail before I could walk
Now I'm undoin 20 years of lies I've been taught Not always easy to let the past be forgot When memories keep you caught Let's travel back nah hold up stop why Cuz if I dwell on the past I give focus to who I'm not I strive to stay away but that's not easy
When who I was wants to control my destiny, testin' me, man it's got me trippin' It's in these moments of despair I feel my foundation slippin'
My insides rippin, leavin' me broken Now I'm completely confused and I'm vunlerable and open
I try to run but who am I runnin' from See from within myself this battle has come So basically you say it's up to me Cuz I'm my greatest ally or my worst enemy

(prechorus)

I stepped out of my body to let God slide in Although I'm still dressed in flesh that I spiritually died in Alive in Christ a new creation started breathin Life exists and through this came completion

(chorus)

Get your mind, body, n soul under control-Who am I identify Who are you, all is new

I feel like my soul keeps challengin' my spirit
And my spirit keeps challengin' my soul Whichever one I choose to excercise the most will be the one to obtain control I feel I got multi-personalities, I dabble in multimentalities
My own thoughts hold me captive in a world of confusion as the manipulation increases gradually Now if a lie's placed before me and I buy into it then am I responsible for the deception If I know acceptance and then I don't take hold who's to blame for these feelings of rejection I bring these feelings of confusion I challenge all that my heart believes I'm the one that drags my past up from the grave telling myself I won't succeed

Ending:

I'm not that person anymore that's what blood was she'd for no longer a failure livin' life more abundantly therefore you'll never see me livin' less than victory (Repeat 4x)
