"Walk With Me"

Take a walk with me, let me show you things that no one else can see Take a walk with me, where if you're willing anything can be
And then you'll realize you're not alone

Take a walk with me, feel The Mother's rhythm beating endlessly
Take a walk with me, hear her blood that's flowing gently to the sea
And then you'll realize you're not alone

Take a walk with me, where there's no anger and no jealousy
Take a walk with me, if your mind is open then you will see
And then you'll realize you're not alone
And then you'll realize you're not alone

Just sit back now, let your mind be free We'll take a trip somewhere inside, just you and me Then we'll fly, we'll fly away
And then we'll fly, we'll fly away

Then you'll never have to be alone
And then we'll never have to be alone
