Truth's are all lies
The commons I Despise
They really didn't do it for me
A greased palm over here get's you something over there Doesn't honesty count for anything?
I can hear it ring
Libery for me, Can't you hear it ring?
God damn deaf!
One of the masses...YUCK!
Demeaning, demeaning
What's the meaning?
Why do Jackasses and Dumbos fight?
Something's not right
A political cival war, unrest!
I think some bastard father said it best
"GROW THE HELL UP!"
Go get a life!
'bout the bout
it's a common intervention
Unity and confussion
A twisted messed up invention
Mock the mocked who follwed the flock
Who never really picked up on what life's about!
He is wrong, who answers the answers
Question not me but all the questions
Gesture a finger, he laid one on me
Pressure the man, for his lies lay in our plans
To score one in the forum
A fucking peice of the pie
It's amazing the arrogance which comes with a suit and tie
A degree allows some degress of free bullshit to spill
To never swallow pride for it's a mighty big pill
Paranoia strikes with the check in the mail
Liberty without the cash, watch the freedom set sail
Out of your life, you get no remorse
Relinquish you humility with all force
