It comes right from the start
And it will rip your world apart
Because you never understand what's going on
It comes right from the start
And it will shred your heart apart
If you don't believe what I conceive
It comes right from the start
It comes right from the start
Chrissy went downtown
Chrissy went downtown
Chrissy went downtown...Last night
Chrissy went downtown to follow her dreams
But all she ever got was caught in a scheme
Promised fame, fortune and glory
But all she ever got was the same old story
...She got robbed!
Now she's laid low down on skid row
Her California dream does not seem
The way the brochure depicted life's ease
She thought it'd be a breeze
First it starts..
Taken in
Pamering
Shooting
Snorting
Dealing
Zombie State
Drugs can't wait
Start whoring
And owe your life to Mac the Knife
In his silver Mercedes
Has both the meat and the gravy
He grabs your pay as you snort your life away
In a zombie walk, some sort of jumbled talk
You need another happy dart
It comes right from the start!
