It's good to see the sun and feel this place,
This place I never thought would feel like home.
And I ran forever;
Far away and I always thought I'd end up here alone.

Somehow the world has changed me.
I've come home,
To give back the things they took from you.
And I feel you now,
I'm not alone,
I'll always know where you are.

When I see myself, I'll always know where you are,
Where you are.

And I found something that was always there,
Sometimes it's got to hurt before you feel,
But now I'm strong and I won't kneel,
Except to thank who's watching over me.

But somehow I feel so strong.
And I've begun,
To be the one I never thought I'd be.
And I feel you now,
I'm not alone,
I'll always know where you are.

And when I see myself, I'll always know where you are,
Where you are.

Now, it's all so clear,
And I believe that everything's been opened up for me.
And I feel you now,
I'm not alone.
I'll always know, I'll always know where you are.

When I see myself, I'll always know where you are.
When I feel the sun, I'll always know where you are.
When I see myself, I'll always know where you are,
Where you are.
