Maybe I've been wrong to stop and think it over
Every time I thought a leavin' you
'Cause you've always let me know the door was open
If ever I decided that we were through

So, I'm gonna leave you tomorrow
I've had enough that's all I got to say
Yes, I'm gonna leave you tomorrow
But that's the same thing I said yesterday

We sleep separately together - never touchin'
And you won't talk about it anymore

I guess you've just grown so used to havin' me around you
That I'm just some old has been that you ignore

So, I'm gonna leave you tomorrow
I've had enough that's all I got to say
Yes, I'm gonna leave you tomorrow
But that's the same thing I said yesterday

Yes, I'm gonna leave you tomorrow
But that's the same thing I said yesterday
