Life after you is harder than I thought it would be Cause I never knew how much you were a part of me
I can make it through the days OK but I can't go to sleep
Wonderin' how's your life after me

Do you still like to sleep on a rainy day
Do you still cry when Bogie walks away
And do you still stay up until there's nothin' on TV
Tell me, how's your life after me

Well I've still got some dreams to fill
And I could lose some weight
Cause I'm a little bit older
And a little less bolder than I used to be
If the truth were told
I'd sell my soul for the way things used to be
Oh girl, how we used to be

Well I've still got some dreams to fill
And I could lose some weight
I'm a little bit older
And a little less bolder than I used to be
And if the truth were told
I'd sell my soul for the way things used to be
Oh girl, how we used to be

Life after you is harder than I thought it would be Cause I never knew just how much you were a part of me
I can make it through the days OK but I can't go to sleep
And when you're lyin' all alone at night
Do you ever think of me
Tell me, how's your life
Baby, how's your life
I wanna know how's your life after me

This is much harder than I thought it would be
