"Do You"

See me down, see me out
See those wings you gave me
Watch me fly across the sea
Count the ways you made me

I walked in circles, walked the line
Tripped through tangled heart strings
Made an enemy of time
Made a mess of all things

I have thought and think about, what and how to tell
You
I have lived it seems without learning how to be true

But I meant every word I said, from deranged to divine
And I would do it all again, as if for the first time

The hurt that the head forgets, the heart will always Remember
The hold that the hand regrets, the heart remembers
Forever

I am sorry, I am so, for the things you don't know
And as for the things you do, I am sorry for those too
Out of every broken heart, broken rule and promise
I have made a rescue raft and sailed towards you on it,
On it

The hurt that the head forgets, the heart will always Remember
The hold that the hand regrets, the heart remembers
Forever

Do you, do you want me?
Do you know how to show, how to show these things?
I just didn't want to have to ask, I just didn't want To have to
Least of all people, you

Should you find someone, with whom there's no shiver or

Shout

With whom never to assume too much rain or a drought

Scratch your name into her heart, scratch away all the

Doubt

Scratch my memory from your brain, I'll scratch her

Fucking eyes out

I was put together wrong, still I was made for you

When our stitches come undone, we come together like

Glue
