Paris is beautiful during the summertime, I hear Here is so dull and grey after the April snow has cleared
I keep New York in mind, rain on the streets this time of year
I saw you in my mind, I conquer your forbidden land
See your treasure's inside the sea
Don't waste your time walking the sand

For your answer is under water
You won't miss the sun you got
The light you give, oh you give Oh the moon lights the surface
It's a shadow land that serves a purpose
For you live, how you live

Send out your thought beams
Something to lead me on my way
I used to float in your ice stream to weigh up my beauty day by day
I know broken bones don't come close to the pain of hidden truth
I caught your dream in mine, I saw us walking hand in hand
See your treasure's inside the sea
Don't waste your time walking the sand

Oh your answer is under water
You won't miss the sun you got
The light you give, oh you give
Know the moon lights a surface
It's a shadow land that serves a purpose
For you live, how you live

Oh your answer is underwater
You won't miss the sun you got the light you give oh you give, you give, you give Oh your moon lights my surface
It's a shadow land that serves a purpose
For you live, how you live, how you live
How you live
