They took you away at three
to teach you a craft
to make you compete.

When you fell off the balance beam,
you couldn't win,
you jumped up again.

And still wide-eyed, you...
still wide-eyed, you...
still wide-eyed, you go.

And we met in the tunnel of the stadium,
immediately was too fast and free,
and I asked you to stay with me,
don't return that satellite tomb!

And still wide-eyed, you...
still wide-eyed, you...
