Woke up on the sand,
tied up my sleeping bag
The jetty won't last forever, waves are tumbling tumble

Stone by stone
I ended here all alone
And brick by brick
Walled myself from happiness
And eucalyptus piled high
Shivering by a flaming fire

Chorus
Too much time oh oh
Too much time gone by and I can't find you if I tried
Too much time oh oh
Too much time gone by and I can't find you if I tried

Rolled up my map
I got no obligations
I packed up my pots and pans
Freedom is overrated

Stone by stone
I left my only home
And brick by brick
Walled myself from happiness
And dead fir and almond-wood
A storm crosses over Mount Hood

Chorus
I've got too much time oh oh
Too much time gone by and I can't find you if I tried
Too much time oh oh
Too much time gone by and I can't find you if I tried
(repeat)
