Come gather round and listen, if you can get that near
If not, we'll use a microphone so all poor souls can hear And hold hands in a circle, or stare bored straight ahead
Rejoice in your rebellion, or wish you were in bed

Come gather round and listen, or watch it on the screen
The campfire burned out long ago, the songs all got obscene
And left us with some rich kids trying hard to be sincere
Let it fly straight out the other after going in one ear

Come gather round--from the kings and the queens on down
If you listen close, you can hear the sound
Of a human voice saying "come gather round"
Come gather round

So listen to my story, though I haven't yet begun
We have to cut through so much crap to have a little fun
And who are "we" now anyway to even earn the name?
We're so convinced we're different, it makes us all the same

Don't fall for the maturity
It ain't real
They just call it "integrity"
Please don't grow up Please blow up your tv

Come all you desperate rebels and hang your heads in shame
For those who live in self-contempt with just themselves to blame
And for those who can, who do nothing, and those who can't, who succeed
To cry out "bloody murder" the moment that they bleed...

Come gather round--from the kings and the queen on down
If you listen close, you can hear the sound
Of a human voice saying "come gather round"
Come gather round
