Your shadow passes by, INVOLUNTARY MOVEMENT.
A straight back and suggestive eye....
And for my part....
I don't see any harm in staring....
Clothes tell lies....
I noticed....Mascara lines....I noticed....
Don't be cool.
They're not filming you.
This woman's spending the vast proportion of her time in chains....

A warm horizon is no compensation for a wasted day....
and for my part....
I don't see any harm in staring-
Clothes tell lies....
I noticed....
Mascara lines. I noticed.
Don't be cool. They're not filming you.
