I'm gonna fill me full of coffee
Just to drown the nicotine
I'll do a slow striptease
Then wash my body clean
I'm gonna go to bed too early
Just to keep me still
Then I'll lie there quiet
Try to write my will

Then I'll dream that I am with you
Oh to hide inside your hair
I'll be so quiet that
You won't know I'm there
Visit me tonight
Come like dust under the door
Here's a key
And you know what it's for

But, oh
Do you know
I love you so
You so&so;?

I never took a breath before
I never wrote a song
My body is in trouble
I've been out of it so long
But I want to be inside right now
And only you know when
Just one kiss would bring me back
Again

But oh
Do you know
I love you so
You so&so;
