Gravity can't hold me
Gravity can't hold me no more
Gravity can't hold me
Gravity can't hold me no more

Gravity can't hold me
And if you wanted to show me Don't talk gotta know me And tell me where you're coming from

You always wanted to do this Not all of us pursue this Maybe dayjobs pollute us
You paid you're dues so let's do this

And when you finally let go Fast lane or drive slow Let's get it right from the get go But I'm still waiting by the phone

And since I've come this far Guess I could walk just a little bit more Since you've come this far Guess you walk
Guess you walk

Just a little bit more
Just a little bit more
Just a little bit more
Just a little bit more

Dreams carry us through

Help us do what we got to I really wanted to thank you For sharing the road with me

Cuz we're all moving Gotta figure out what we're doing Aint nothing that needs proving A'cept proving to your own and when you finally get there you might find there aint no 'there' to get to but that's alright we're gonna see this thing through see this thing through and since you've come this far guess you could walk just a little bit more since I've come this far guess I could walk

just a little bit more
